

Article I. Purpose

A. It shall be the purpose of this organization to promote a better understanding of the following:

1. The current status of laws concerning Industrial Hemp in the state of Michigan and in the United States at large.
2. To educate the public, State Government, Agriculture community and Business leaders about the Potential benefit Industrial hemp could have on the Michigan economy, farming and Manufacturing environment.
3. To promote the market of Hemp products in Michigan and help venders of hemp products connect to a customer base.

Article II. Membership

A. The membership shall be divided into active and associate members.

1. Only individuals whose chapter dues are up to date or who have performed an agreed upon service are considered active chapter members.

2. All others interested in furthering the purpose of the organization, including paid members of the organization who are not active members, shall be associated members.

We welcome volunteer efforts and contributions from nonmembers as well as members.

However, Associated members may not hold office, vote, preside, officiate, or solicit funds on behalf of the organization.

They may do so with expressed consent of the board as an Advisor. (see below)

B. It shall be the option of any member to have his or her name listed on the open rolls of the organization as John or Jane Doe and to be listed in a closed membership book for the purpose of membership Certification. This book shall be available only to officers of the organization, or to those authorized by full board approval for a specific purpose and/or time.

Article III. BOARD

1 General Powers. The business, property, and affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the board of directors.

2 Number. There shall be not less than three (3) nor more than seven (7) directors on the board as shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

3 Tenure. Each director of the Corporation shall hold office until the director's death, resignation, or removal.

4 Resignation. Any director may resign at any time by providing written notice to the Corporation. The resignation will be effective on receipt of the notice or at a later time designated in the notice. A successor shall be appointed as provided in section 3.06 of the bylaws.

5 Removal. Any director may be removed with cause by the remaining directors on the board.

6 Board Vacancies. A vacancy on the board may be filled with a person selected by the remaining directors of the board.

7 Annual Meeting. An annual meeting shall be held each year in April. If the annual meeting is not held at that time, the board shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as is convenient.

8 Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the board may be held at the time and place as determined by resolution of the board without notice other than the resolution.

9 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board may be called by the president or any two directors at a time and place as determined by those persons authorized to call special meetings. Notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be given to each director in any manner at least three days before the meeting.

10 Waiver of Notice. The attendance of a director at a board meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. In addition, the director may submit a signed waiver of notice that shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting.

11 Meeting by Telephone or Similar Equipment. A director may participate in a meeting by conference telephone or any similar communications equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this section constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

12 Quorum. A majority of the directors then in office constitutes a quorum for the transaction of any business at any meeting of the board. Actions voted on by a majority of directors present at a meeting where a quorum is present shall constitute authorized actions of the board.
